Mrs. Broyles, Mrs. Just, & Mrs. Robinette

Anchorage Public School

Week of October 28, 2019

Reading-Mrs. Just

The students are using multiple strategies to determine importance and identify the main idea of informational passages. This week we will begin identifying supporting details.

Homework Read 20 minutes each night. Read "The Day the Worms Moved In" by Friday.

Writing-Homeroom

Students are writing opinion pieces. We are focusing on how to use examples, explanations, expert statements, and experiences to provide strong support for opinions.

Vocabulary-Homeroom

Unit 8: Assessment will be administered on Friday.

Math- Mrs. Broyles

In math this week, we will continue Module 2 problem solving with multiplication and multiplying decimals to the hundredths place by whole numbers.

Science- Homeroom

In science this week, the scientists will finish writing the letter to Dr. Klein about a solution to balance ecosystem. Then students will begin studying the impacts of humans on ecosystems.

Social Studies- Mrs. Robinette

On Monday and Tuesday we will be reviewing information about Plymouth. There will be a test over Roanoke, Jamestown, and Plymouth on Wednesday. On Thursday and Friday we will start learning about the 13 colonies.
