STEP TWO: Talk about the Big Idea

- How is sharing like putting someone else first?
- When is it hard to share?
- What do you think the song means by we all deserve to be at number one together?

STEP THREE: Write about the Big Idea

- Write about a time you put someone else first.

STEP FOUR: Activate the Big Idea in Your Life

SEL COMPETENCIES:
ORGANIZATIONAL SKILLS,
RESPECT FOR OTHERS

SUPPLIES NEEDED: butcher paper, pencils

ACTIVITY: Create a list of helpful jobs that students can do at home and rotate the children around to those jobs this month. Some examples include:

- dish washing
- cleaning the counters
- turning off light switches
- helping with the trash

WRAP UP: "Helping others is a great way to show humility. This month, as we each take on a different role in being helpful, we get to practice humility."
