STEP ONE: Show The Big Idea Video

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=un6eSNbNyY0&list=PLVXqh1woV2T0aSNcA0-VdpGVMLC_ajt87&index=40

STEP TWO: Talk about the Big Idea

- Why did the kids want to make the mosaic project?
- Why do you think he persevered even though it was hard?
- What would you have done if you were the boy in the story?

STEP THREE: Write about the Big Idea

- A friend of yours is trying to get an A in math class for the year. It's halfway through the year and so far they have done really well. But on the semester test, they got a C. They're afraid this has ruined their chances at an A in the class.
- How could you encourage them to have determination in spite of this setback and why is that important?

STEP FOUR: Activate the Big Idea in Your Life

SEL COMPETENCIES:

SELF-DISCIPLINE, IMPULSE CONTROL

ACTIVITY: Find "Minute to Win It" activities and provide time for your family to do them. Here are some examples:

- golf ball stack-If you align the dimples just right, you can stack golf balls.
- penny stack-with one hand, two hands, non-dominant hand
- cup stack-building a pyramid with plastic cups

WRAP UP: "Staying determined can be hard – even when you only have a minute! It is easy to want to give up, but persevering and staying determined pays off in the end."
